

KEEPING THE EDSJ* FLAME ALIVE

An event sponsored by the UD/RP** network

(*Equity, Diversity, and Social Justice)

(**Urban Diversity/Regent Park Teacher Education Program Alumni)

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2 – 6 PM

THE UNDERGROUND, YORK UNIVERSITY

1. Introduction
2. Welcome – Alice Pitt
3. Keynote Speaker – Chris Spence, Director, TDSB
4. Panel Discussion – Moderator, John Portelli, OISE

Karlo Cabrera, TDSB, Equity Instructional Leader

How can we engage in conversation with colleagues around EDSJ in our schools?

Karen Murray, UD grad, OISE Course Director

How can UD/RP courses relate more effectively to the range of realities in our school communities?

Vanessa Russell, TDSB teacher, former RP Course Director

How can UD/RP grads advocate effectively for change in the system?

Sonia Ellis, UD grad, ETT executive member

How can the teachers' federation support the EDSJ work of teachers?

5. Small group discussions
6. Greetings from Sylvia Solomon and Ivor Picou
7. Formalizing the UD/RP Network – future directions
8. Social Hour